

Welcome to the RECORDING STUDIO!

Douglas County Libraries – Parker
20105 East Mainstreet

What is the Recording Studio?

- A hands-on space to create and capture your music, audio, videos and photos.
- All ages and skill levels are welcome!

Imagine the Possibilities

- Create, record and edit music, videos, family histories and more.
- Conduct podcasts and interviews.
- Create innovative instructional or marketing tools.
- Craft dynamic, out-of-the-box school projects.

Create, Edit and Share Your Projects

- Use one of two computer stations outside the Studio to conveniently edit and add effects to your content without having to reserve studio space.
- Store and share content using your flash drive or SD card, or upload content to your cloud storage from any of the Studio's computers.

Popular Equipment

- Digital photo and video cameras, iPads
- Yeti and Shure microphones and soundproofing
- Tripods and microphone stands
- Scarlet interface and Behringer mixer
- Electric keyboard and drum pad
- Green screen and lighting
- 27" iMacs with Retina 5K displays

Popular Software

- Video: iMovie, Final Cut Pro, Adobe Premier Pro
- Music & Audio: GarageBand, Logic Pro, Audacity
- Photo & Digital Illustration: Adobe Photoshop & Adobe Illustrator
- To learn how to use our software, access the classes available through LinkedIn Learning on our website: <https://www.dcl.org/library-perks/>.

How It Works

- See a staff member or reserve the space with your library card: visit DCL.org/reserve-a-space and click "Reserve Now" under Parker Recording Studio.
- Reserve additional computers outside the Recording Studio via library staff, by phone (303-791-7323) or in person, and on a walk-in basis.
- Library card or photo ID required at check in.
- No food allowed. Beverages must be in a covered container.
- Parents of children age 12 and under must reserve the Studio and remain in the room during the reservation.
- The Studio may be reserved for up to three hours per day, twice a week.
- Due to high demand, if you are more than 15 minutes late for your reservation, your time may be given to another Studio user.
- The Studio is available during regular Douglas County Libraries business hours (see DCL.org/locations).

Questions?

Email parkerrecordingstudio@dclibraries.org